Chris Galvanauskas is a paralegal supporting our Financial & Regulatory, Litigation and Estate Administration practice areas. With over 20 years of experience, Chris is adept at assisting attorneys on a variety of matters. Chris has supported regulatory and compliance matters for broker dealers, investment advisers and private equity firms. She has worked on litigation cases from inception through trial on cases involving product liability, insurance defense and securities arbitrations. And she has attended trials and arbitrations in Federal Court, Circuit Court and before various regulatory agencies including FINRA, CBOE and the SEC.

Chris also handles probate administration matters, assisting our Estate Administration attorneys with the opening, administration and closing of probate estates.

In her spare time, Chris enjoys traveling, watching Chicago Cubs baseball games and spending time with friends.
