PRACTICE AREAS

- Business & Corporate Services
- Tax & Estate Planning

With more than 30 years of experience as a paralegal, Raymond W. David has the acquired essential skills and knowledge to assist clients with trust and probate administration needs, as well as corporate and real estate transactions. Since joining the firm in 2011, Raymond has become an integral part of the estate and business planning team at Lawrence Kamin.

Raymond's complete attention to detail, unparalleled focus and solution-oriented approach to every client matter makes him a unique and invaluable asset to our firm. Whether administering trusts and probate estates, preparing estate and gift tax returns, re-titling or transferring clients assets, or handling real estate and corporate matters, Raymond completes complex tasks efficiently and with ease.

In 2008, Raymond took a brief break from the legal field and was imbedded with U.S. Armed Forces and the Multi National Forces in Iraq during Operation Iraqi Freedom and Operation New Dawn. While there, Raymond provided mission-essential linguistic support and cultural advice. This experience further enhanced Raymond's demonstrated strengths of giving total attention to detail and finding quick resolution to any situation.
