David L. Reich is an experienced business attorney concentrating in general business matters and transactions for private businesses and business owners, including mergers, acquisitions, divestitures, commercial lending, leasing and real estate transactions. David also has significant expertise in the estate planning and estate administration areas, specializing in estate and gift tax matters and business succession planning.

David regularly represents small to medium-sized business clients and emphasizes a comprehensive perspective that considers all aspects of the business and the needs of the owners and their families. He is known for acting as a modern day counselor, taking a practical, level-headed approach to problem-solving and focusing on the needs of his clients to arrive at creative solutions.

In his estate planning and administration practice, David works closely with clients and their financial advisors to meet clients' charitable goals, and near- and long-term goals for the transition of wealth in a thoughtful and tax efficient manner. Serving in the role of trustee for many clients, David demonstrates his ongoing dedication to serving his clients as a trusted advisor carrying out their wishes after they've passed.

David is very involved in community development and charitable activities, serving in leadership roles on the board of three foundations. He enjoys spending time with his family, travelling and outdoor activities, including golf, skiing, hiking and running.
