Guadalupe Sanchez has amassed substantial experience and a strong grasp of case law in the 10 years she has worked as a paralegal in Chicago. Her practice primarily focuses on business litigation, insurance coverage, products liability, employer liability, employment law, and business tort law.

Guadalupe has played a key role in supporting legal teams in their pursuit or defense of complex commercial and civil litigation matters in state and federal courts. She provides direct support in discovery review and litigation management leading up to trial, and draws upon experience from past case work with the Illinois Workers' Compensation Commission and the Circuit Court of Illinois. Additionally, Guadalupe is bilingual and is able to assist with Spanish translation to assist clients and translate documents.

In her spare time, Guadalupe actively supports her community and church. She serves as a volunteer and youth leader helping to shape the social and emotional development of 7th through 12th graders.
