Molly Gilhart is a proficient paralegal with valuable knowledge and experience in the areas of real estate, tax, probate, estate planning and estate administration. Her resourceful and investigative mind paired with her demonstrated communication and time management skills are perfectly suited to assist our attorneys.

Molly primarily supports the Real Estate, Business, and Estate Planning practice groups at Lawrence Kamin. She plays a critical role helping to ensure a smooth transfer of property for our corporate and individual clients. Molly's work includes conducting property, tax and legal research, fact checking, preparing and reviewing transactional and closing documents, corresponding with buyers, sellers and other interested parties, and overall case management. Molly also assists with our clients' trust funding, as well as estate and trust administration matters.

In her free time, Molly loves staying active and exploring the city. She enjoys biking along the lake, finding new restaurants, and attending concerts with friends and family.
