Mary Miles is a transactional attorney who focuses her practice on general business matters in estate and business succession planning and real estate. Working closely with her clients, ranging from individuals and families to small and large businesses, Mary provides strategic but practical advice on a wide variety of legal issues. She prides herself on possessing an approachable demeanor and accessibility to her clients, actively listening to their needs, and providing tailored solutions.

In her free time, Mary volunteers as a student mentor at her alma mater, The University of Illinois Chicago School of Law. She also enjoys spending time with her family and friends, traveling, and reading.
